Bishop James A. Pike, stormy petrel of the Episcopal Church, charged the Warren Commission had failed to obtain all information on President Kennedy's assassination, and said he and two other men are forming a committee to ask LBJ to release "suppressed evidence." He said he believes Lee Harvey Oswald was a member of an assassination conspiracy.